

What are the Royal Court Theatre's Introduction to Playwriting Groups 2022-23?

The Introduction to Playwriting groups are weekly sessions for playwrights with little or no experience.

It is not a teaching course about how to write a play.

But the groups are for people with big ideas who are excited to write for the theatre.

You will be encouraged, led and supported by a professional playwright

After all the sessions, you can submit a play for us to read.

It's free! There is no fee to take part.

When and where do the sessions take place?

Some of the groups will take place at
The Royal Court Theatre

And some will take place online.

The sessions will happen every week for a total of 8 weeks.

They are usually evening sessions

And will last 1.5 hours.

Who can apply to the Introduction to Playwriting Group?

Anyone over the age of 18 can apply.

We accept applications from writers who live in:

England

Scotland

Wales

Northern Ireland

And Ireland.

We can help with travel costs
to London if needed.

We can support with other access needs and will respond to your requirements.

How do I apply?

You can apply in two ways

2

1. Clicking on this picture will take you to the page with the online form.

There is also a large print version.

2. You can email

literary@royalcourttheatre.com

with a video or audio application and an example of your writing.

Your video or audio application must not be longer than 5 minutes and must include:

1. Your name

2. Your address including postcode

3. Your telephone number

4. Your email address

5. Confirmation that you are 18 years old or older

And answer the following 2 questions:

1. Thinking about your writing sample, what led you to telling this story as a piece of theatre?

2. Think of a writer whose work you value. What's one question you could ask that would support you with your playwriting journey?

You also need to send 10 pages
of a play.

It can be a short play or an extract from a longer script.

We cannot accept film or TV scripts.

It must be in Word or PDF format.
